

Ivalu Scholarship

Your education is the key to our success!

The Ivalu Scholarship was created to honor eligible applicants who are making noteworthy and influential contributions to their community through their community cultural service commitment of their personal time to projects and activities which strongly incorporate the Iñupiaq values. Applicant selected should serve as a role model of implementing and following the 12 Iñupiaq Core Values while performing community cultural service activities. The Iñupiaq Values are listed as follows:

Respect for Our Elders and Each Other
Family & Kinship
Humility

Humor
Compassion
Knowledge of Language

Sharing
Cooperation
Avoidance of Conflict

Spirituality
Hunting Traditions
Respect for Nature

Criteria

- Must be an original ASRC shareholder or a lineal descendant of an original ASRC shareholder.
- Must have a high school diploma or GED.
- Must maintain a 2.0 grade point average (GPA) throughout the cycle of the award, and must currently have a 2.0 GPA, if already admitted to a college, university, or training institution.
- Must plan to enter or currently be enrolled in a college, university, or vocational training institution.
- Must have a demonstrated cultural community service commitment through activities, abilities, and effort which involve the 12 Iñupiaq core values.

Application procedure

Students may apply for this scholarship by:

- Completing the Ivalu Scholarship Application AND regular Arctic Education Foundation scholarship.
- Submitting two letters of recommendation.
- Submitting a copy of your high school transcript and college/training transcripts (if applicable).
- Submitting a personal essay. See essay guidelines below.

Personal Essay

Essay guidelines:

- Write a two to four page, double spaced essay describing your cultural community service commitments which you have engaged in and describe which Iñupiaq Value(s) have been utilized while doing those activities. Topics will have a strong community service component such as whaling crew activities, Iñupiaq dance groups, church volunteerism, fire department volunteerism, Boys and Girls Club volunteerism, etc., and should also include all other activities not identified previously which have a strong relation to the Iñupiaq Values.
- Describe your goals of attending college/training.
- Discuss your plans after completion of college/training.
